

- 1. Business Registration: The entity must be a registered business in Uganda, operating within the animal feeds manufacturing sector.
- 2. Compliance with Industry Standards: Applicants must adhere to national and international standards for animal feed production, ensuring quality and safety in their products.
- 3. Membership Application: Interested parties need to fill out a membership application form, providing details about their business, such as registration documents, location, types of feeds produced, and production capacity. Company profile
- 4. Payment of Membership Fees: There are usually membership fees that need to be paid upon application and possibly annual dues. The specific amount can vary based on the size of the business or production capacity.
- 5. Commitment to Association Goals: Members should be committed to the goals and objectives of UGAFMA, including promoting industry best practices, engaging in advocacy efforts, and participating in association activities and events.
- 6. Ethical Business Practices: Members are expected to adhere to ethical business practices, maintaining integrity, transparency, and fairness in their operations.
- 7. Participation in Association Activities: Members are encouraged to actively participate in UGAFMA activities, such as meetings, workshops, and training sessions.

These requirements ensure that members are legitimate, committed to industry standards, and actively contribute to the collective goals of UGAFMA. For precise details and the most current requirements, it is advisable to contact UGAFMA directly or visit the official website.

Membership per size of the company or per individual

Package	Price
Large	1,000,000/=
Medium	500,000/=
Small	250,000/=
Individual	100,000/=